 Training Opportunities

HICS Training

HICS is a system providing hospitals with an efficient and effective way to manage any emergency incident and show evidence of compliance with The Joint Commission and NIMS HICS is market-driven software designed around the work flow of managing emergencies by providing functionality, and meets the Joint Commission Standards for the Chapter on Emergency Management.